Slow performers and advanced learners after each assessment showed remarkable increase in the number of advanced learners and their achievements on academics. There was also improvement in the number of slow performers. These special programmes have shown to benefit the students and help improve the outcome measures with improved learning skills.

Continuous efforts to regularly access the special programmes by the improvement on the strategies in the learning of students will increase the performance of the students. This improvement will ensure the heads of department and quality education and holistic development of all the students.
