

SANTOSH

Deemed to be University
(Established u/s 3 of the UGC Act, 1956)

Date: 18.02.2022

ACTIVITY REPORT

Primary language among medical graduates is English and poor communication among medical graduates has generated concern. Hence, communication skill learning for examining the relationship between language & oral communication is necessary. Dr. Veenu Aggarwal, Professor Paediatrics highlighted this important skill among the MBBS graduates. They took a keen interest and understood its importance and should overcome their inhibition during the interaction. More than 50 students attended the session.

