Talk on Future Aspects of Medicine

16.11.2022

The initiative of Santosh Medical College & Hospital, Ghaziabad was conducted on "Future Aspects of Medicine" as a part of Career Counselling session for the students of Batch 2018. The session delved into the intriguing prospects and advancements awaiting in the field of Medicine in the future. Hosted by prominent experts in various medical domains the discussion provided valuable insights into the transformative potential of emerging technologies and novel approaches.

The session was held on 16.11.2022 in the Maharaja Hall, Santosh Medical College at 03:00 PM and was attended by 147 MBBS students.

It provided a compelling glimpse into the transformative trends reshaping the healthcare landscape. From personalized treatments to AI-driven diagnostics and regenerative therapies the possibilities are vast and promising. However, as medicine strides into the future, it is imperative to navigate ethical, regulatory and societal challenges judiciously to realize the full potential of these innovations.

It was a very well framed session and a lot of things were there which were new to students and they have learnt and motivated to learn more in a very easy and interactive session.
