TOTAL NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS:

MBBS Final Year students - 29 nos.

Report of the Workshop:

Santosh Deemed to be University has entered into a MoU with Shibli Academy of Health & Skill Sciences - American Heart Association Authorized International Training Centre. As a quality Initiative of IQAC to facilitate life-saving skill based learning, BLS Course has been initiated under the MoU. The 1st and 2nd BLS Batch have been successfully conducted on 16.04.2022 & 14.05.2022 respectively, and the 3rd BLS batch of course is being done on 10.09.2022 at 2:30 pm in Maharaja Hall.

The session began with a Welcome note by Dr. Ezhilrajan, Deputy Registrar, followed a brief Introduction on the External Experts. After that the Trainers took charge and BLS Training session continued. During the Training session, students were given training on the various aspects of Emergency Life saving support for the patients who will be attended by them during their profession. During the session, training was given to the students on handling and using the NIV mask, giving artificial air, physical pumping techniques, extension of help toward cardiac arrest etc. Students were very energetic and enthusiastic in learning the life saving skills which is very much necessary during practicing their profession. At the end an evaluation session was also conducted by the Shibli Academy trainers to the students for assessment of the knowledge and skills learnt and performed.

A general feedback form has also been circulated and received from the students and the programme ended with a group photo marking the end of 3rd Batch of conduct of the BLS Course.
