Department of Microbiology

Report on Hospital Infection Control

The Department of Microbiology conducted training on Infection control Program on 04-04-2018 at 2-4 pm in Santosh Hospital. This event was attended by 10 participants included Dr. Geeta Gupta, Associate Professor Microbiology as trainer and 10 participants including Electrician, Attendant, Security and Housekeeping staff. She gave hands on training on BMW management included

- Minor & major spills with details about definition, identification, spill kit and standard operating procedure of the management of spill.
- Hand Hygiene, donning and doffing of gloves and mask.

The training workshop significantly improved the non-teaching staff knowledge and skills regarding Infection Prevention and Control and earned high satisfaction scores from the trainees during the discussion held post the training.
