Message from The Vice Chancellor

Dr Tripta S Bhagat

Annual Report of any institution is significant as it reflects the growth and at the same time highlights the failures. With the COVID 19 pandemic and its uncertain behaviour has retarded the progress of almost all institutions including ours. But victories and failures are part of everyones life; victories should be celebrated and failures to be taken as an opportunity to improve ourselves .Under the guidance of our Founder chairman DR P Mahalingam, we have faced the pandemic with clarity and planning and many of our plans have been executed to our satisfaction. Still, we have miles to go and our aim and goal is to see that our University emerges as one of the top-ranking universities of our country and globally. The Annual Report 2020-2021 highlights the Santosh Deemed to be Universitys accomplishments during the year that passed by and it is a matter of pride and satisfaction that ever since the inception in 2007, Santosh (DU) has been striving for excellence in Health care services, Higher Education , Translational Research and Extension Services and has made rapid strides both in the area of academics and research. The last two years were difficult however the resilience shown by the staff and students helped the university in tiding over the difficult situation. SDU is now poised towards new growth by starting programs which will make the university a multi disciplinary place of learning aligning itself with the new education Policy.

This Annual report also provides an insight into the curricular, co-curricular and extracurricular activities of the University and its constituent colleges, including the annual financial statement. Even during these difficult times of the COVID-19 situation, the University has continued to remain innovative in responses to the challenges posed to teaching-learning, research, and community services. This report also portrays the wide spectrum of various academic and co curricular activities of the University and its constituent institutions The Hospital in Covid 19 pandemic was Officially declared as Level 3 dedicated CovidHospital and provided health Services to the whole Region of Ghaziabad. This was reflected in the Appreciations given by the State Govt. and Santosh Medical College Hospital was phrased as the LIGHT HOUSE OF GHAZIABAD by the Shri Rajneesh Dubey ji Principal Secretary and Addl. Chief Secretary of UP state. Our Doctors were also awarded Certificates of appreciation by the Hon'ble Cabinet Minister for Finance, Parliamentary Affairs and Department of Medical Education, Govt. of UP, Shri Suresh Khannaji.

The Heads of the constituent institutions have tried to capture the vibrant academic environment that exists in the college campus highlighting the research projects, research publications, participation in international seminars and workshops, special achievements including awards and honours.

Our Departments have shown exemplary proactiveness in conducting online, offline small group teachings, conducting examinations, implementing government SoPs notified from time to time etc. and were instrumental in conducting Vaccination Drive throughout the District. As George Bernard Shaw rightly said, 'progress is impossible without change, and those who cannot change their minds cannot change anything', the doctors, nurses and paramedical staff of our hospital have proved that they can bring changes in the COVID situation through dedication and hardwork. It is the collective effort of our colleagues to get the annual report done through perfect documentation. I thank my colleagues and students who are a part of our University and to those who seek to join us in our mission to develop SDU as a Centre of Excellence imparting quality education and health care, with a high degree of credibility, integrity, ethical standards and social concern.

With all good wishes

Introduction

A unique model Institution, Santosh Deemed to be University serves as a distinct institution delivering quality medical/dental education & healthcare services. In addition to offering degrees in Medicine & Dentistry, the University provides an environment for translational research and innovations in health sciences and comprehensive healthcare.

SANTOSH (Deemed-to-be University) has its roots in a group of Institutions established by the Santosh Trust. The Trust was established in 1995 by one of India's DYNAMIC CARDIOLOGIST, with the mission of empowering youth through quality, affordable health education and health services. The Trust has established 2 institutions spread in two campuses at Ghaziabad UP with allied paramedical Colleges.

Santosh Medical College and Hospital and Santosh Dental College are the two colleges of the Trust, then affiliated to Ch, Charan Singh University and later was declared the two constituent Units of Santosh "Deemed to be University" by Ministry of Human Resource Development on 6th June 2007. Attaining the University status.

Ghaziabad based standalone Santosh Deemed to be University a health University is one of the perfect templates to define quality induced education. For any institution to rise above all and flourish, the quintessential pre-requisite needed is a body of dedicated faculty, sincere administration, and diligent students. When all these three meet and amalgamate, then we get a perfect blend of learning. Santosh University provides today's health sciences students with distinguished and committed faculty, who provide thoughtful and humanistic mentoring. State of the art learning facilities and clinical Labs. in teaching Hospitals. All the colleges are supported by on campus super-specialty teaching and network group of Hospitals. All the courses are recognized by the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare of the Government of India.

The university has been offering an MBBS course since 1995 with a total intake of around 50 students per year. 2005 onwards, the course was recognised by the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare of the Government of India and the capacity of accepting a particular number of admissions was increased to 100. 25 years after its inception, the institute is considered as the best medical university of India.

In the same manner, Santosh Dental College started in 1995 with an aim of imparting a higher level education in dentistry. The institution offers a foundation course in BDS since 1996 by accepting about 40 students annually. But the number of admissions went up higher to 100 per year after 2005.

The offices of Santosh Deemed to be University are housed on the 4th floor of the Medical College. The University currently offers 58 programs in disciplines related to health sciences and dental Sciences.

These include undergraduate, postgraduate, doctoral and diploma programs. The University has attracted students from almost all the states of India as well as from international destinations. The professional programs have received uninterrupted recognition from the respective statutory Regulatory authorities.

M.Sc and Ph.D Courses were introduced in 2012 which were under the Ambit of Santosh Deemed to be University. The students are provided with a plethora of 27 value added courses. In addition to their curriculum, 6 teaching programmes are offered at the UG, PG and Ph.D. levels through 29 departments. The students are facilitated to participate in community-connect programmes of village adoption, implementation of all national programmes which enable them to evolve as holistic citizens of the country.

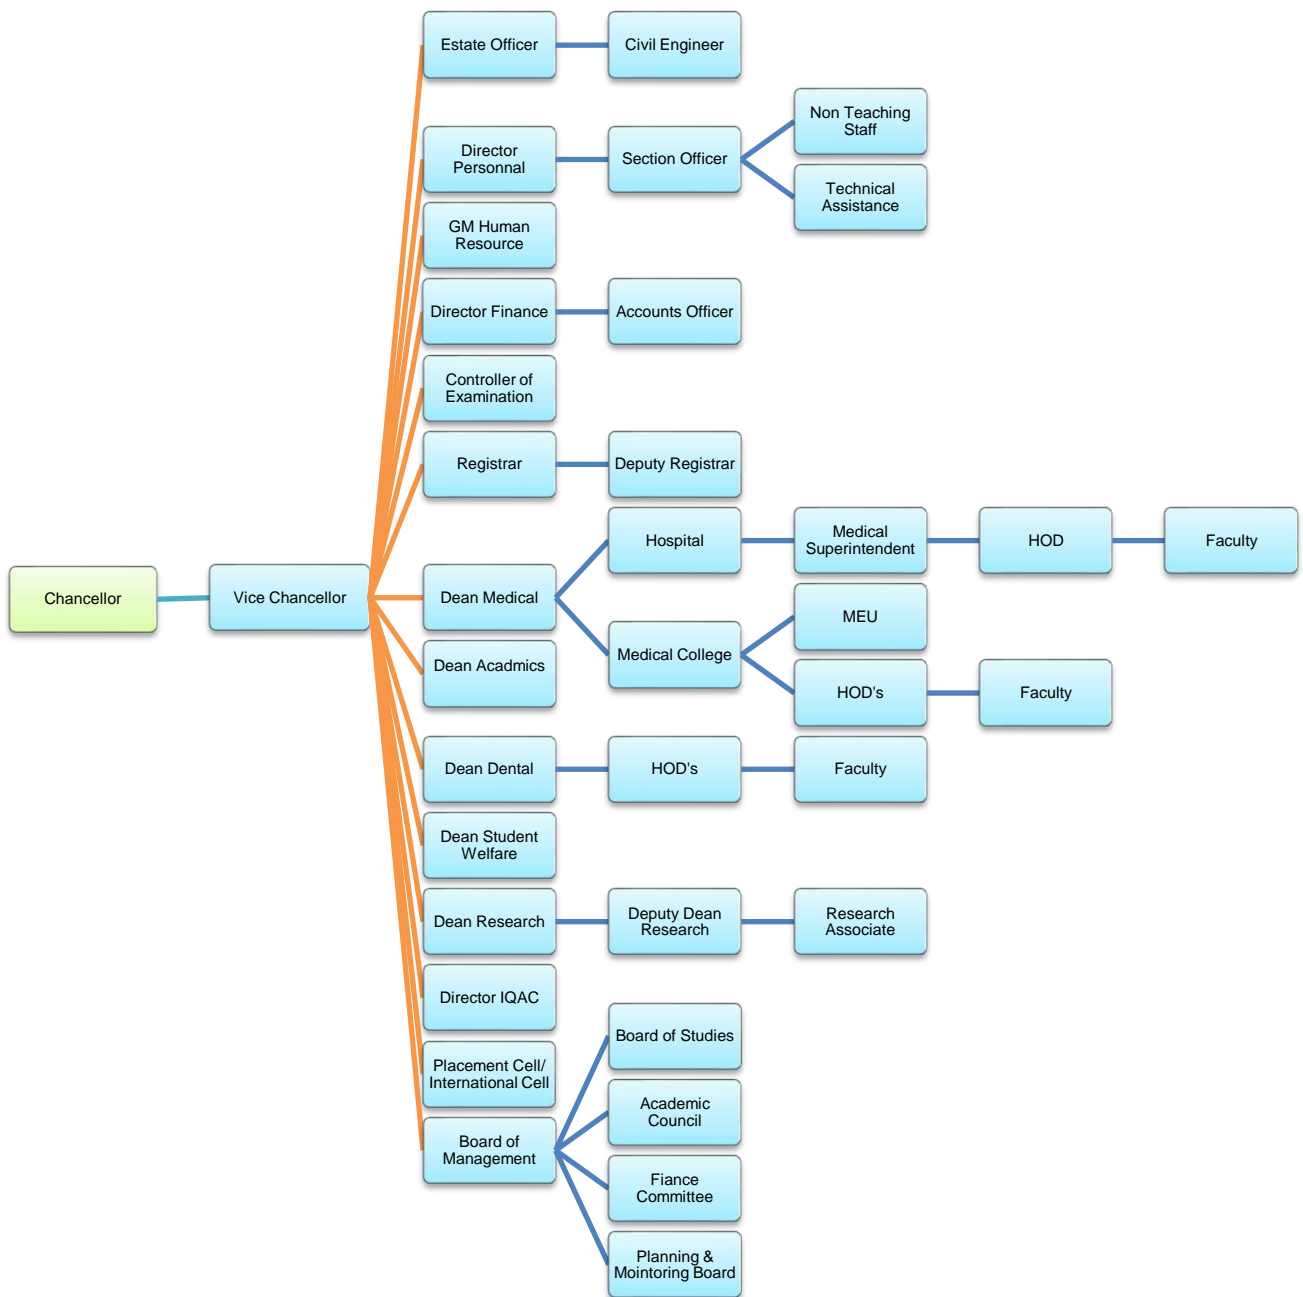

We have a standardised 'Mentor-Mentee system' which helps to assess the slow-learners and advanced learners on entry and implement special programmes for both the groups without any stigmatisation. Each mentor would have 10 students under their teacher-parent care system, which will take care of both academic and personal issues. These approaches include bridge and remedial courses, communication skill courses, and psychological counselling services for slow learners. The advanced learners are provided opportunities to take additional courses with extra credits, research projects, conference participation, etc., It is seen that this system has made normalisation of all students and everyone becomes equally competent

NATIONAL & INTERNATIONAL COLLABORATIONS

Collaborations between Institutions are beneficial in forming global partnerships and fostering relationships with other institutions. The number of students choosing to study internationally is constantly increasing and hence it is only logical that Universities would want to increase internationalization and attract applicants from across the globe.

For most students it is an opportunity to travel internationally via exchange programs at partnered Universities and provide students the ability to study, work and travel in an international capacity.

Santosh University is an educational hub and invests in cross cultural University partnerships. This helps to propagate academics, research and health care needs of the society. As a result of the expansion of communication methods academics and researchers are finding it easier than ever to collaborate with their other organisations in making the exchange of academic ideas much simpler to organize as sharing of experience is essential for both academic and scientific accomplishment.

Santosh has established well for over two decades and has got a committed team of teaching and non-teaching staff members. The Team is poised to take the success story of this institution to other parts of the State/Country. The UP Government has approved establishing a new Medical College at the nearby District in the ensuing academic year. The Trust has ambitious plans to impart quality medical care facilities at competitive cost.

The engagement between academic research faculty an industry is a pathway for significant benefit to University, Industry and Society. Our University has more than 50 International & National MOU & Collaboration that benefit our staff and students at large.

DEPARTMENT OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

A Campus Optical Fiber (OFC) Digital Data Network is a computer network that interconnects Local Area Networks (LAN) throughout a limited geographical area, such as a University campus or corporate campus. The networking equipments (switches, routers) and transmission media (optical fiber, copper plant, Cat5 cabling, etc.) are almost entirely owned by the campus tenant/owner: an enterprise, university, government, etc.

Campus Network Topology

College or university campus area networks often interconnect various buildings, including administrative buildings, academic buildings, university libraries, campus or student centers, residence halls, gymnasiums, and other outlying structures, like conference centers, technology centers, etc. training institutes.

All of the nodes in a campus network are interconnected by means of optical fiber media, taking advantage of Gigabit Ethernet or 1-Gigabit Ethernet technology. In some cases, Wi-Fi hot spots or even a hot zone make up the user end of the network, for example, in University student centers or libraries where numerous people simultaneously use portable and mobile devices such as notebook and tablet computers to conduct research and carry on communications.

Computers connected to a network are broadly categorized as servers or workstations. Servers are generally not used by humans directly but rather run continuously to provide “services” to the other computers (and their human users) on the network. Services provided can include printing and faxing, software hosting, file storage and sharing, messaging, data storage and retrieval, complete access control (security) for the network’s resources, and many others.

Workstations are called such because they typically do have a human user who interacts with the network through them. Workstations were traditionally considered a desktop, consisting of a computer, keyboard, display, and mouse, or a laptop, with an integrated keyboard, display, and touchpad. With the advent of the tablet computer, and the touch screen devices such as iPad and iPhone, our workstation definition is quickly evolving to include those devices because of their ability to interact with the network and utilize network services.

On a single LAN, computers and servers may be connected by cables or wirelessly. Wireless access to a wired network is made possible by wireless access points (WAPs). These WAP devices provide a bridge between computers and networks.

Our Features:

- Speed of 1 Gbps. Internet Lease Line
- Completely Connected and facilitated with Wi-Fi devices in entire Santosh Campus
- Facility of Lecture Capturing in both mode (Audio & Video) in Lecture Theaters room itself.
- Facilitating Academic ERP solution to users to keep the records and many more.
- Academic ERP Solution with Mobile App
- Online Classes Platform facility on Google Meet & Microsoft Team
- Mailing solution from G-Suite.
- Web-hosting and Domains services managed under one umbrella
- Santosh IT Infra is connected on 1 Gig internal network
- Entire campus and other building infra of Santosh are connected through Fiber Cable
- Campus is secured and monitors through CCTV Surveillance

Applications of Campus OFC Network for Teaching, Learning, and Research:

User Access Control: Modern networks almost always have one or more servers which allows centralized management for users and for network resources to which they have access. User credentials on a privately-owned and operated network may be as simple as a user name and password, but with ever-increasing attention to computing security issues, these servers are critical to ensuring that sensitive information is only available to authorized users.

To access e-resources like Library e-journal subscriptions from all the departments and hostels.

Video conference facility.

Virtual Classroom for live streaming lectures within and outside the campus.

To access Health Information System (HIS) application software.

To access Management Information System (MIS) application software.

E-learning facility.

Computing resources: The Institution can provide access to special-purpose computing devices that individual users would not usually own. For example, a network might have high-speed, high-quality printers strategically located around campus for the instructor or student use.

Future Road map:

The solution that can be integrated with the existing OFC Network in the future. Any IP related networking devices

For example:

- VOIP / IP Phones.
- Call center
- Implementation of Cyber Security (UTM)
- Centralized AV Solution
- Establishment of DC & ADC Environment
- Video Conferencing Solution.
- Smart Classes with interactive board and PA system
- Network storage & backup solution.
- Extension of controller based Wi-Fi & IP surveillance Service to other areas in the campus.
- Inter-Campus Connectivity system

Note: These are only a few examples, but the possibility is endless.

OUTREACH & EXTENSION ACTIVITIES

Students undertake field visits / research projects / Industry Internship / visits/Community postings as part of curriculum enrichment

Oral Health Care to the underprivileged and weaker section of the society is the ultimate goal of Santosh Deemed to be University and Santosh Dental College with its entire work force. To achieve this, undergraduate and postgraduate students from different Dental Departments conducted various Oral Health screening and treatment camps, patient education and motivation on oral hygiene. The Oral Health Awareness programs were conducted on regular interval in various schools and community.

In spite of COVID pandemic, Santosh Dental College motivated its faculty and students to continuously reach out to the society for promoting good oral hygiene practices. Department of Community Dentistry along with Department of Pedodontics and Preventive Dentistry undertook community-based/school-based research projects either in the field practice areas or schools in the district of Ghaziabad. The unique school health program included oral prophylaxis and preventive treatment creating oral health awareness in both rural and urban communities.

The knowledge of population is necessary to develop and restructure the educational program for children at the school level. Therefore, the tailored educational Oral Health awareness camps increase the knowledge of parents. This would be an adjunct in shaping the values and behaviour in children.

Various activities were organised in the community from time to time on important dental health related issues as well as to observe important National Health Days. Dental undergraduate and postgraduate students along with faculties participated in these activities every year as a part of their field visits. To name a few such activities- Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, World Health Day, World No Tobacco Day, World Oral Health Day etc. Some of these activities were interdepartmental as well as inter-college, involving faculty and students from different departments and the different institutes in the University.
